Activity Supports Employability/Entrepreneurship/Skill Development
- The following activities are conducted in the course 15UIT404 –Database Management Systems for the students to support Skill Development,

- Lab Demo activity promotes the teamwork among the students. The ER design of a simple database is given. The students are practiced to work in team to provide the programming solution for the design of a database using DDL and DML commands. Working in Team and programming skills are developed during this activity.

HoD / IT

Prepared by

G.Rajalakshmi