ORIENTATION PROGRAM

The Orientation Program was successfully conducted for students and faculties on October 29, at civil seminar hall. TM J.Vadivel Ramanan, member of award city Toast Master club presided the program. The purpose of an orientation for a Toastmasters club is to familiarize new and prospective members with the organization's mission, structure, and benefits. It provided a foundation for their journey in developing communication, leadership, and public speaking skills. NEW MEMBER INSTALLATION PROGRAM

The Orientation Program was successfully conducted for students and faculties on December 12, in IT seminar hall. TM V.Venkateshan, Area Director , F4 Division, Toast masers club presided the program. New members are introduced to the club's goals, structure, and expectations, helping them feel welcomed and informed right from the start. Pairing new members with experienced ones provides guidance, which accelerates their learning curve and makes the transition smoother. By formally welcoming new members, clubs create an environment where members feel valued and part of the community. New members are more likely to stay engaged if they feel supported and appreciated. The program can include personalized goals, giving members clear milestones to strive for.

CLUB CONTEST

The Toastmasters club contest was successfully conducted for students and faculty members on 11th March, 2025 in IT seminar hall, Sethu Institute of Technology. DTM Parvathy Vijayakumar, Area Director, I Division, presided the program. A Toastmasters club contest is a competitive event where members of a Toastmasters club showcase their public speaking skills. These contests typically involved delivering speeches or participating in other speaking-related challenges, such as impromptu speaking or evaluation. The primary purpose is to provide members with an opportunity to test and improve their speaking abilities in a supportive environment. Toastmasters club contest is a fun, challenging event that encourages personal and professional development in public speaking. . Participants are judged by experienced members based on criteria such as speech organization, delivery, and content. It's an opportunity for members to receive constructive feedback and grow as speakers. While the contest is competitive, the atmosphere is supportive, with participants cheering each other on. Winners received certificates and may advance to higher levels of competition within the Toastmasters organization.

JOINT CLUB MEET WITH HCL,

A joint club meeting with HCL refers to a collaborative event between a Toastmasters club and HCL. This type of meeting typically allows Toastmasters members from both the Toastmasters club and HCL employees or members to come together for a shared session, promoting networking, learning, and skill development. A joint club meeting with HCL offers numerous benefits, fostering both personal and professional growth. It provided an excellent opportunity for networking, allowing Toastmasters members and HCL employees to connect and build meaningful relationships. By collaborating with individuals from a global IT organization, participants gain diverse perspectives on public speaking and leadership, which can significantly enhance their communication skills. These meetings also create a platform for shared learning, where attendees can exchange ideas, techniques, and experiences, enriching their understanding of effective communication. Additionally, such events can motivate participants to push their boundaries, set higher goals, and strive for continuous improvement in both their personal and professional lives. The interaction between Toastmasters members and corporate professionals encourages teamwork and cross-collaboration, which strengthens the overall learning experience. Moreover, joint meetings may include specialized workshops or discussions on topics relevant to both public speaking and corporate communication, offering practical insights for real-world application.
